Dynamic All-in-One ETF Portfolios

Rethinking all-in-one investing.

The Dynamic difference

Rethinking all-in-one investing.

Dynamic All-in-One ETF Portfolios go beyond traditional stocks and bonds and other All-in-One investments. For those looking for a simpler way to invest, you make one investment decision, and these portfolios combine Dynamic Active ETFs, alternative investments and Systematic ETFs in one solution. Each Dynamic All-in-One ETF Portfolio provides broader diversification, access to additional sources of growth, and active management at a competitive price.

Diversified all-in-one portfolios

Built with Dynamic Active ETFs, alternatives and Systematic ETFs, these portfolios go beyond typical all-in-one solutions and aim to deliver broader diversification and enhanced return potential.

Active management at a competitive price

Actively managed by our team of experts¹, these diversified, all-in-one solutions are continuously monitored, rebalanced and tactically adjusted as markets evolve, all at a competitive price.

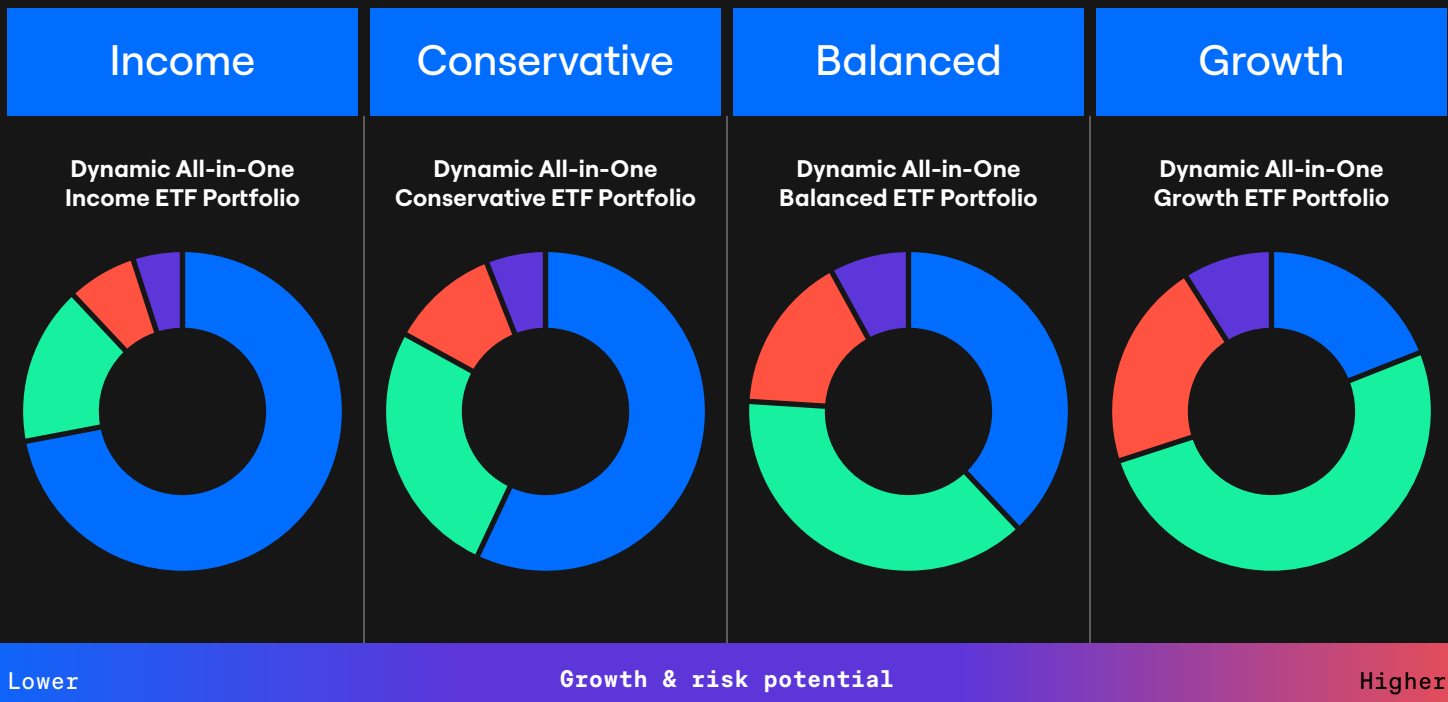

Access to alternative opportunities

Don't leave diversification and growth potential on the table. Benefit from more than traditional stocks and bonds with a broad range of alternative opportunities. Access additional sources of growth potential and new ways to manage risk.

¹The Multi-Asset Management team manages over $150 billion in assets across multiple brands, channels and products. The Team consists of 20 Portfolio Managers, Assistant Portfolio Managers, Analysts and Traders, averaging over 23 years of diverse portfolio management experience. As of June 2026.

There's a Dynamic All-in-One ETF Portfolio for you.

Designed with your goals in mind, each portfolio is built using a diversified combination of ETFs spanning different asset classes, industries, geographies, company sizes, investment styles and strategies to help you achieve what's most important to you.

Active alternatives includes assets and strategies like:

The building blocks of each portfolio

Active ETFs

High-conviction active ETFs that look beyond the benchmark to uncover opportunities and aim to outperform over time.

Alternative ETFs

More ways to diversify and grow with liquid alternatives, real estate, infrastructure, gold and crypto from Canada's alternatives investing leader.

Systematic ETFs

Uses a multifactor model to identify stocks with strong potential while managing risk, designed to help investors achieve better long-term outcomes.

Know-how and expertise

Our Multi-Asset Management Team combines a disciplined investment process with expertise in portfolio construction, asset allocation, and manager selection. The team's portfolio managers have an average of more than 20 years of industry experience managing diversified portfolios across a range of investor needs and risk levels.
