

Dynamic Funds wins Fund Provider of the Year award

TORONTO, October 5, 2020 - Dynamic Funds announced today that it was recognized as the 2020 Equisoft Fund Provider of the Year at the sixth annual Wealth Professional Awards.

“It is an honour to receive this prestigious award – and to be recognized for our dedication to financial advisors and their clients. Our Dynamic Funds business has had an exceptional year, staying true to what we do best – delivering legitimately active management, launching innovative solutions and consistently advocating for financial advice. The team has upheld this commitment to excellence over the past several months, despite the unforeseen challenges that have arisen,” says Neal Kerr, President and CEO, Dynamic Funds.

“Thank you to financial advisors across Canada for the support and the advice you provide Canadians. We are proud to stand behind you day in and day out, and this award provides further motivation to continue to deliver,” says Mark Brisley, Managing Director, Dynamic Funds.

The Fund Provider of the Year Award recognizes the firm that consistently delivered superior advisor service while innovating and exhibiting industry best practices over the last 12 months. Presented by Wealth Professional magazine, the Wealth Professional Awards celebrate excellence in the Canadian wealth management and financial planning profession and recognize the leading advisors, teams, brokerages, fund providers and industry service providers for their achievements, leadership and innovation over the past year.
