

Dynamic launches new liquid alternative fund

TORONTO, October 1, 2025 – Dynamic today announced the launch of the Dynamic Multi-Alternative PLUS Fund (DMAP), a new liquid alternative mutual fund designed as a one-ticket solution for investors seeking attractive risk-adjusted return potential, and lower correlation to traditional markets.

“Advisors and investors continue to seek out diversified exposure to alternative investments to help dampen market volatility, in an accessible and convenient way,” said Mark Brisley, Head of Dynamic. The Dynamic Multi-Alternative PLUS Fund provides access to a broad spectrum of alternative asset classes and capital structures within a liquid structure, to deliver comprehensive diversification. We believe this versatile, risk-aware strategy can deliver both income and capital growth, across a range of market conditions.”

The DMAP Fund seeks to deliver income and long-term capital appreciation by investing across a wide spectrum of assets (debt, options, structured finance, equity and private assets), while dynamically adjusting allocations based on prevailing market conditions.

The Fund is co-managed by Richard J. Lee, CPA, CA, CFA, Vice-President & Portfolio Manager, and Nick Stogdill, CPA, CFA, Vice-President & Portfolio Manager—who bring more than 35 years of combined industry experience in alternative strategies.
