How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

1832 Asset Management L.P. has rated this Fund's risk to be medium to high.

This rating considers how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see the Risk section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how the Series OP shares of the Fund have performed since it was created. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This information is not available because no Series OP shares of the Fund have been issued since inception.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This information is not available because no Series OP shares of the Fund have been issued since inception.

Average return

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who are ...

- seeking the potential for long term capital growth through exposure primarily to equity securities of companies operating in the resource sector;
- able to accept some variability of returns and are investing for the medium to long term.

Series OP shares are intended for investors making large investments in a Fund.

! Do not invest in this Fund if you cannot accept the volatility of resource prices and their potential impact on equity markets in this sector.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

A switch to a different fund within the same mutual fund corporation or a reclassification between series of the same fund that employ different hedging strategies will result in a disposition for tax purposes and accordingly, you will realize a capital gain or capital loss.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series OP shares of the Fund. The fees and expenses, including any commissions, can vary among series of the Fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

No sales charges are applicable to the Series OP shares of the Fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the returns of the Series OP shares of the Fund.

The Series OP shares of the Fund's expenses are made up of fixed administration fees, trading costs and fund costs. The fixed administration fee is 0.06% of the series' value. No Series OP shares of the Fund have been issued since inception, therefore its trading costs and fund costs are not yet available.

The Series OP shares of the Fund may also pay 1832 Asset Management L.P. a performance fee based on the Fund's out-performance versus the following reference indices: 50% S&P/TSX Capped Energy Index; and 50% S&P/TSX Capped Materials Index. Any performance fee payable is calculated as described in the simplified prospectus to a maximum of 3.00% of the average month-end net asset value of the Fund during the calendar year. The performance fee is estimated and accrued daily, calculated at calendar year-end using the average month-end net asset value and is paid within thirty days after calendar year-end.

More about the trailing commission

No trailing commissions are applicable to the Series OP shares of the Fund.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, switch, redeem or reclassify shares of the Fund.

Fee

What you pay

Switch fee

This fee is negotiated with and paid to your representative's firm to a maximum of 2% of the value of shares you switch to another fund.

Short-term trading fee

If you redeem or switch securities within 30 days of purchase or switch we may charge a short-term trading fee of 1% of the net asset value of the securities you redeem or switch. We monitor trading activity for up to 90 days. If we identify multiple redemptions or switches within 90 days we may charge 1% of the net asset value of the securities you redeem or switch. This fee is paid to the Fund and is in addition to any switch fee that is payable by you to us.

Management fee

Management fees are negotiated and paid directly by you to 1832 Asset Management L.P. The management fees for Series OP shares will not be higher than 2.00%.
