Caution Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain portions of this report, including, but not limited to, "Recent Developments", may contain forward-looking statements about the Fund and the underlying funds, as applicable, including statements with respect to strategies, risks, expected performance events and conditions. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "projects" and similar forward-looking expressions or negative versions thereof.

In addition, any statement that may be made concerning future performance, strategies or prospects and possible future action by the Fund is also a forward-looking statement. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future general economic, political and relevant market factors, such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity and capital markets, and the general business environment, in each case assuming no changes to applicable tax or other laws or government regulation. Expectations and projections about future events are inherently subject to, among other things, risks and uncertainties, some of which may be unforeseeable.

Accordingly, current assumptions concerning future economic and other factors may prove to be incorrect at a future date.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or events could differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by the Fund. Any number of important factors could contribute to these digressions, including, but not limited to, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, such as interest and foreign exchange rates, global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government relations, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings and catastrophic events. We stress that the above mentioned list of important factors is not exhaustive. Some of these risks, uncertainties and other factors are described in the Fund's simplified prospectus, under the heading "Risk Factors".

We encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully before making any investment decisions. Forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon. Further, you should be aware of the fact that the Fund has no specific intention of updating any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance, and that the forward-looking statements speak only to the date of this management report of fund performance.

Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended at June 30, 2026 (the "period"), the Fund generated a total return of 2.6%. Fund returns are reported net of all management fees and expenses, unlike the returns of the Fund's benchmark, which is based on the performance of an index that does not pay fees or incur expenses.

The Fund's broad-based benchmark, the FTSE Canada All Corporate Bond Index, returned 2.2% during the same period. In accordance with National Instrument 81-106, we have included a comparison to broad-based indices to help you understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of the market.

The Canadian bond market, as represented by the FTSE Canada Universe Bond Index, delivered a positive return of 2.2% for the 6-month period ending June 30, 2026. The 10-year Government of Canada bond yield traded in a relatively wide range as investors weighed slowing economic growth, evolving inflation dynamics, and uncertainty surrounding global trade policy. The bellwether security fell as low as 3.1% in Q1 of 2026 before rising as high as 3.7% in Q2 and becoming more volatile amid higher energy prices and renewed geopolitical risks. It ultimately rallied and ended the period at 3.4%. The Bank of Canada (BoC) maintained its overnight rate at 2.25% throughout the period after completing its easing cycle in 2025. Policymakers balanced a soft domestic economy and moderating labour market conditions against a temporary rise in headline inflation driven primarily by energy costs. In the United States, the 10-year Treasury yield also traded in a wide range during the first half of 2026. From a low of 3.9% early in the year to a high of 4.7% in May before settling at 4.4% as of June 30, 2026. As in Canada, bond market volatility was pronounced through the period, driven by the escalating conflict in the Middle East and the resulting shock to energy prices. Against that backdrop, the U.S. Federal Reserve paused its easing cycle, holding the federal funds target range at 3.50%–3.75% across all four meetings in the first half of the year. At Kevin Warsh's first meeting as Chair, he took a more hawkish tone than was expected, emphasizing getting inflation under control. This caused markets to begin to price in rate hikes through 2027.

Credit markets remained resilient despite periodic bouts of volatility. Investment-grade corporate spreads widened modestly during periods of trade and geopolitical uncertainty but generally remained in the tighter end of the historical range. Strong corporate balance sheets and persistent demand for income producing assets supported market conditions. High-yield credit also generated positive returns, bolstered by relatively stable default expectations. The combination of attractive all-in yields and stable credit fundamentals created a constructive backdrop for Canadian fixed income investors during the first half of 2026.

The Fund performed in-line with the benchmark for the period. Issuer allocation and weighting were the primary contributors to relative performance. The Fund benefited from overweight positions in selected corporate sectors, particularly Energy and Financials, while allocations to BBB- and BB-rated issuers added value as higher-spread segments of the market outperformed. Tactical positioning along the yield curve, including overweight exposure to medium-term maturities, also contributed positively to returns. Offsetting a portion of these gains was an underweight allocation to certain longer-duration bonds and select issuer positions where security selection detracted modestly. Tactical trading and the use of derivatives also contributed positively during the period. All U.S. Dollar exposure was hedged back to Canadian Dollars.

The Fund's net asset value increased to $77.8 million at June 30, 2026, from $52.1 million at December 31, 2025. This change was composed of net sales of $25.6 million, and investment performance of $1.5 million and cash distributions of $1.4 million. The investment performance of the Fund includes income and expenses which vary year over year. The Fund's income and expenses changed compared to the previous year mainly as a result of fluctuations in average net assets, portfolio activity and changes in the Fund's income earning investments.

The Fund may make distributions at a rate determined by the Manager from time to time. If the aggregate amount of distributions exceeds the portion of net income and net realized capital gains, the excess will constitute a return of capital. The Manager does not believe that the return of capital distributions made by the Fund have a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objective.

Recent Developments

There have been no recent developments that have affected, or are likely to materially affect the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

The Manager is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Bank of Nova Scotia ("Scotiabank"). Scotiabank also owns, directly or indirectly, 100% of Scotia Securities Inc., a mutual fund dealer, and Scotia Capital Inc. (which includes ScotiaMcLeod and Scotia iTRADE), an investment dealer.

The Manager, on behalf of the Fund, may enter into transactions or arrangements with other members of Scotiabank or certain other companies that are related or connected to the Manager (each a "related party"). All transactions between the Fund and the related parties are in the normal course of business and are carried out at arm's length terms.

The purpose of this section is to provide a brief description of any transaction involving the Fund and a related party.

Management Fees

The Manager is responsible for the day-to-day management and operations of the Fund. The Fund pays the Manager a management fee for its services as described in the "Management Fee" section later in this document. The management fee is an annualized rate based on the net asset value of the Fund, accrued and calculated daily and paid monthly.

Operating Expenses

The Fund is responsible for fees and expenses incurred in complying with NI 81-107, including the fees payable and expenses reimbursed to members of the Independent Review Committee, brokerage expenses and commissions, fees relating to the usage of derivatives, income tax, harmonized sales tax ("HST"), withholding and other taxes.

Apart from the initial organizational costs of the Fund, all expenses related to the issuance of units of the Fund shall be borne by the Fund unless otherwise waived or reimbursed by the Manager. Further details about the Fund's operating expenses can be found in the Fund's most recent prospectus.

The Manager, at its sole discretion, may waive or absorb a portion of the Fund's operating expenses. These waivers or absorptions may be terminated at any time without notice.

Independent Review Committee

The Manager has established an independent review committee (the "IRC") in accordance with National Instrument 81-107 – Independent Review Committee for Investment Funds ("NI 81-107") with a mandate to review and provide recommendations or approval, as required, on conflict of interest matters referred to it by the Manager on behalf of the Fund. The IRC is responsible for overseeing the Manager's decisions in situations where the Manager is faced with any present or perceived conflicts of interest, all in accordance with NI 81-107.

The IRC may also approve certain mergers between the Fund and other funds, and any change of the auditor of the Fund. Subject to any corporate and securities law requirements, no securityholder approval will be obtained in such circumstances, but you will be sent a written notice at least 60 days before the effective date of any such transaction or change of auditor. In certain circumstances, securityholder approval may be required to approve certain mergers.

The IRC has five members, Stephen J. Griggs (Chair), Steven Donald, Heather A. T. Hunter, Cecilia Mo and Jim Lampard, each of whom is independent of the Manager.

The IRC prepares and files a report to the securityholders each fiscal year that describes the IRC and its activities for securityholders as well as contains a complete list of the standing instructions. These standing instructions enable the Manager to act in a particular conflict of interest matter on a continuing basis provided the Manager complies with its policies and procedures established to address that conflict of interest matter and reports periodically to the IRC on the matter. This report to the securityholders is available on the Manager's website or, at no cost, by contacting the Manager.

The compensation and other reasonable expenses of the IRC will be paid out of the assets of the Fund as well as out of the assets of the other investment funds for which the IRC may act as the independent review committee. Each member of the IRC receives an annual retainer of $62,000 ($77,000 for the Chair), plus expenses for each meeting. The fees and expenses, plus associated legal costs, are split equally among all of the funds managed by the Manager for which the IRC acts as the independent review committee. The main component of compensation is an annual retainer fee. Expenses of the IRC may include premiums for insurance coverage, travel expenses and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

The Manager, in respect of the Fund, received the following standing instructions from the IRC with respect to related party transactions:

- Paying brokerage commissions and spreads to a related party for effecting security transactions on an agency and principal basis on behalf of the Fund;

- Purchases or sales of securities of an issuer from or to another investment fund managed by the Manager;
- Investments in the securities of issuers for which a related underwriter acted as an underwriter during the distribution of such securities and the 60-day period following the completion of such distribution;
- Executing foreign exchange transactions with a related party on behalf of the Fund;
- Purchases of securities of a related party;
- Entering into over-the-counter derivatives on behalf of the Fund with a related party;
- Outsourcing products and services to related parties which can be charged to the Fund;
- Acquisition of prohibited securities as defined by securities regulations;
- Trading in mortgages with a related party;
- Entering into a designated broker agreement with a related party; and
- Entering into a prime broker agreement with a related party.

The Manager is required to advise the IRC of any breach of a condition of the standing instructions. The standing instructions require, among other things, that the investment decision in respect to a related party transaction: (a) is made by the Manager free from any influence by an entity related to the Manager and without taking into account any consideration to any associate or affiliate of the Manager; (b) represents the business judgment of the Manager uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; and (c) is made in compliance with the Manager's written policies and procedures. Transactions made by the Manager under the standing instructions are subsequently reviewed by the IRC to monitor compliance.

The Manager, in respect of the Fund, relied on IRC standing instructions regarding related party transactions during the period.

* Annualized

(1) This information is provided as at the period end of the years shown.

(2) The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses (including sales tax, and excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) of each series of the Fund and a proportional share of underlying funds' expenses (mutual funds, ETFs and closed-end funds), where applicable, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, short borrowing costs and interest on leverage of the Fund and the underlying funds, where applicable, expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value of the Fund during the period.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

(5) Closing market price is as per Toronto Stock Exchange on the last trading day of the Fund's reporting period.

Management Fees

The management fee is an annualized rate based on the net asset value of each series of the Fund, accrued and calculated daily and paid monthly. The management fees cover the costs of managing the Fund, arranging for investment analysis, recommendations and investment decision making for the Fund, arranging for distribution of the Fund, marketing and promotion of the Fund and providing or arranging for other services.

The breakdown of services received in consideration of management fees for each series, as a percentage of the management fees, are as follows:

Management fees (%)	Dealer compensation (%)	Other [†] (%)
0.35	–	100.0

[†] Relates to all services provided by the Manager described above except dealer compensation.

Past Performance

The following shows the past performance for the Fund and will not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that all distributions made in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.
